To whom it may concern,

After reading (and rereading) the proposed settlement in the Microsoft Anti-trust case, I must say that I am appalled. The proposed settlement is inadequate, unenforceable, filled with loopholes, and would have an insignificant effect on bringing these convicted monopolists to justice. If we as a society treated all criminals in the same manner in which we are treating Microsoft, then we would have no need for prisons.

In short, please add my voice to the mass of other voices firmly against this settlement.

Thank you for your time
